

- (g) To give professional and expert help, advice and cooperation of the Medical profession to the Government and the organized bodies in their work of administration and management of health matters and Medical Education etc.
- (h) To associate, cooperate or affiliate with National or International Organisations holding similar aims and objects.
- (i) To guide and help members of the profession especially new entrants in the establishment of their career.
- (j) To help families of the deceased, disabled and ailing members of the profession.

Methods

5. For the attainment and furtherance of the above objects, the Association may:

- (a) circulate such information, as may be thought desirable by means of a periodical & Journal, which shall be the Journal of the Association and by any other occasional or regular publications.
- (b) arrange from time to time lectures, discussions and demonstrations on any subject of Medical and Allied Sciences.
- (c) hold meetings, conferences, particularly of the members of the Association and of the Medical Profession in general.
- (d) encourage Research in Medical and Allied Sciences through grants by establishing scholarships, prizes, donations or rewards in such manner as may from time to time be determined by the Association.
- (e) maintain and manage Association Office, Reading Room, Library and Club for the members of the Association.
- (f) conduct an educational campaign among the masses of Pakistan in the matter of public health and sanitation in cooperation with different public bodies working with the same objects, or by publication of periodicals or magazines or booklets for this purpose.
- (a) organize volunteer corps of the Members of the Association for medical relief during epidemic and in times of emergency in Pakistan or anywhere out of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan.
- (h) consider and express its views on all the laws promulgated in Pakistan in connection with Medical Profession, Medical Practice or Medical Education, and to keep a keen eye over the proposed Legislation in Pakistan which concerns Public Health, Medical Profession or Medical Education and take such steps and adopt such measures from time to time as may be deemed expedient.
- (i) grant sums of money out of the funds of the Association for the promotion of the medical health, and other matters in such manner as may from time to time be determined by the Association.