

6 Collection and Distribution of Subscription

All subscriptions are due in advance on the First January of every year subject to Bye-laws 4 & 5.

7 Non-payment of Subscription

If the subscription on behalf of any member is in arrears, action may be taken as laid down in the Bye-laws.

8 Wander of Membership

- (a) If a Branch Member leaves the area of his Branch permanently and goes to another Branch, he must clear all the dues of the previous Branch and shall pay the full subscription for the current year and obtain a certificate of payment from the Branch and this certificate will entitle him to the membership of the new Branch without further payment for the remaining year and the Central Fund Contribution shall be paid by the previous Branch.
- (b) On no account the new Branch shall accept the intimation of transfer from any member unless a clearance certificate is produced from the previous, Branch showing that all the dues thereto have been paid up,
- (c) The fact of transfer shall be notified by the Branch to each other and to the Central and Journal Offices.

9. A member enrolled at any time during the year, shall pay the full subscription for the year irrespective of the date of enrolment.

10. In case of Direct Members, the Provincial Branches shall send Rs. 2.00 per member to the Central Office.

11. Termination of Membership

By resignation .- A member may at any time resign his membership by giving thirty days notice in writing to:

- (a) The Branch Secretary, in case of the Branch Member.
- (b) The General Secretary of the Provincial Branch concerned of which he is a member.

The resigning member shall pay up all the dues against him and the Secretary concerned shall put up a statement of outstanding dues against the member or issue a clearance Certificate if all dues are paid and forward together with the copy of the same and resignation to the Central Office for information and necessary action.

12. Removal of name on account of Non-payment of Subscription after due notice

- (a) In case of Direct Members notice for the payment of the subscription should be sent by registered post on or after First April informing the member that his subscription is due and unless received within the month of the notice his membership would be liable to cease.