

- (ii) The conference shall be held in turn in each province as determined by General Assembly/the Central Council.
- (iii) Every person including the delegates attending the conference shall pay such fee as is prescribed by the Central Council.

47. Reception Committee

The Branch inviting the Conference shall form the Reception Committee of the Conference and Membership of the Reception Committee shall be open to the following:

- (a) All the members of the Branch which invite the Conference.
- (b) All the Members of the neighboring Branches who decide to cooperate.
- (c) All the Medical men with qualifications register able under the Pakistan Medical Degrees Act-1916 (Act-VII of 1916) residing in the town which invites the Conference or in the neighborhood.
- (d) Other citizens of the town where conference is invited.

48. Delegates to the Biennial Conference; will be

- (a) All members of the Central Council and
- (b) The various Branches of the Association shall send their delegates to the Conference elected by them according to the numerical strength of the Branches in the following manner:
 - (i) From 5 to 15 Ordinary Members—One Delegate
 - (ii) Above that for every 15 or part thereof—one Additional Delegate.
- (c) Only the delegates shall have right to vote at the Conference after due identification by PMA Centre through National Identity Card or Identity Card issued by PMA (Centre).
- (d) All delegates will be elected by the respective branches and the branch secretaries have to get their names registered with PMA (Centre) one month before the Conference in order to prepare an electoral list.

49. Delegates from Foreign Countries

Medical men invited from different countries, individually or as representatives of the Medical Societies or Organizations attending the Pakistan Medical Conference shall be the "Guest Delegates". They shall not pay any fee whatsoever and shall not vote.

50. Members of the Conference

Membership of the Conference shall be open to the following with only delegates having the right to attend and vote at business session.

- (a) All the Members of the Reception Committee.
- (b) All the Delegates.